Geographic Map of Women's Boxing in the Olympic Games

*Dr. Abdelaziz Hassan Abdelaziz

The research aims to identify the geographical map of the countries most involved in women's boxing Olympic Games. The researcher used the descriptive approach. The London 2012 Olympic Games and Rio de Janeiro 2016 represented the study sample. Results showed that the geographical map of the London 2012 Olympics included 23 countries while; the geographical map of the Rio de Janeiro Olympics included only 25 countries. In addition, the geographical map included Morocco and Tunisia as Arab countries in the London 2012 Olympics and the presence of Morocco only as an Arab country in the Rio de Janeiro Olympics 2016.
