

Acknowledgment

First of all, my deep grateful recognition and indebtedness is to ALLAH, the most merciful, the most generous and the most gracious, who greatly help me and always supports me in every step in my life.

I gratefully acknowledge my deep indebtedness and particular thanks and respects to Prof. Dr. Osama Saad El-Shaer, Professor of Clinical Pathology, Faculty of Medicine, Benha University, for his great support, excellent advices and continuous encouragement to me. Words never will be enough to express my great admiration for his humanity, simplicity, humility and scientific honesty.

I would like to thank Prof. Dr. Ahmed Yousef Rezk, Professor of Obstetric and Gynaecology, Faculty of Medicine, Benha University, for his intelligence, assistance and enlightening remarks throughout this work.

I also would like to express my deepest thanks and gratitude to Dr. Wafaa Mohammed El-Said Abdalla, Assistant consultant of Clinical Pathology, Faculty of Medicine, Benha University for her appreciated cooperation and great help. No words could express my deep feelings of great indebtedness and sincere appreciation to her for her generous efforts and helpful facilitations.
