

ملخص
الدراسة
باللغة الإنجليزية

Abstract of the study

- Introduction and problem of the study:

Based on the constant increase of the phenomenon of illegal youth in the Arab world in general and in Egypt in particular has conducted the current study on the sociological analysis of the phenomenon of illegal immigration in its relations with rates of migration by the repercussions of globalization and youth attitudes towards liberalization and its impact in general on migrants, either in the country of origin or country Destination.

- Importance of the study:

The importance of the current study, in both sides, along with theoretical, and other Applied, The importance of the theory of the current study being seeking to try to address the sociological analysis of the phenomenon of illegal immigration in Egypt in terms of determinants and implications, and down to the forward looking vision on this phenomenon, whose practical importance in proposing ways to address them in the light of the results of the present study. "Alacetktab".

- Objective of the study:

The present study aimed to investigate and analysis the heritage sociological phenomenon of migration in genral, and illegal immigration, particularly in light of the determinants of political, economic, social, and its repercussions among the countries of origin and destination, and through a field study on some young people from illegal immigration, and agents of migration legitimacy, and visions of intellectuals interested in some of the Egyptian society on the phenomenon of illegal immigration.

- Approach, methods and tools of the study:

Used sosio antherpology in the current study, curriculum, and the descriptive method, and the historical method, also used the case study for each of the youth and travel agents, and to explore the view of some interested in the phenomenon of illegal immigration by the way Alacetktab.

- The study sample:

The present study was conducted on a sample of fifty case of cases of young immigration illegal from some villages in the province Quliubiya, aged between 15-45 years old, and a sample of twentieth case of agents of illegal immigration from the same villages in the sample of youth, and a sample of twenty intellectuals interested in the phenomenon of illegal immigration to explore the views on this phenomenon.

- Hypotheses of the study:

In light of the objectives and the problem of the current study, it has been the hypotheses of the study in an attempt to answer the main question follows: to what extent is the phenomenon of illegal immigration the product to the continuation of unequal relation between developed and developing countries in the phase of globalization to dedicate the new world order?

Emanating from this hypothesis the main sub- hypothesis as follows:

- There is a relationship between the phenomenon of illegal immigration and the commas political, economic, social, and cultural mainstream of Eypatian society.
- Associated with illegal immigration repercussions among the countries of origin and destination.

- Results of the study:

The results of the current study, research hypotheses as follows:

- Associated with the phenomenon of illegal immigration is directly linked by commas political, economic, social, and cultural mainstream of Egyptian society.
- Associated with the phenomenon of illegal immigration is directiy linked to the existence of the positive repercussions rather than negative in both countries of origin and destination.

The current study included eight chapters , an introduction and a conclusion as follows:

- Chapter I, was allocated to the determinants of the theory and methodology of the study:

And it took the researcher determinants of the theory and methodology of the study in light of their importance and objectives that seek to achieve through the formulation of hypotheses basic to the study and its questions subsidiary thereof, as well as addressing the theoretical frame through the contributions of theory in sociology represnted in cash, and the theory of world order.

The researcher starts by seeing where the theory holds that there is a global capitalist system that has led to the continuation of the Arab labor Migration currents significantly, and increasing numbers of migrants between the developed and third world countries.

The researcher also addressed in this chapter the methodological imitations of the study in terms of:

Curriculum, methods and tools for data collection, study areas, and ends this chapter with a summary of some diffculties that you may experience the researcher during a field study.

- Chapter 2, was allocated to the sociological analysis of the phenomenon of illegal immigration:

Where the researcher addressed the sociological analysis of the phenomenon of illegal immigration under the effects of globalization, and the brain drain face the Egyptian migration, and determinants of political,economic, and social development of illegal immigration.

- Chapter 3, had been allocated to the repercussions of illegal immigration between the country of origin and destination:

Have been dealt with the repercussions of illegal immigration in the country of origin in terms of:

Belonging, and transfers of development, and consumer culture, and its repercussions in the country of destination with respect to the concerns as a result of immigration as a crime of transnational organized, and its impact on changing the composition Demographic European, and integration.

- Chapter 4, concerned with the presentation and critical analysis of some previous studies, including arab and foreign:

Dealt with the researcher in this chapter, some previous studies of Arab and foreign- related as much as possible the subject of the current study with regard to the phenomenon of illegal immigration and analysis from the perspective of cash in terms of the agreement or disagreement between their results, and the extent to which the methodology, and tools...etc.

- Chaper 5, was devoted to the presentation of some field studies of realistic models of illegal immigration:

And it took the researcher a brief overview of the field of gographical study alhalipp represented in Qaliubiya (City tukh) where the application of tools for the field study (cas study method, observation systamitic and interview) on a sample of the fiftieth state of the cases of colony illegal in the villages:

Kafr Algernal, Reteat Abdel Nabi, Alkkleila, Aghour Alkoubra, estate kafr scholars, administrative personnel in light of their statements the basic.

- Chapter 6, to discuss the results of field study:

The researcher in this chapter addreseds the motives of young people travel from the mother country- Egypt- in the light of results of the field study, and the dynamics of illegal immigration, and to identity aspects of the attractions in the countries of the researcher in the current study.

- Chapter7, provison to view the conse quences of the phenomenon of illegal immigrartion:

And the reseacher dealt with the conse quences of the phenomenon of illegal immigration in the country of destination and origin in the light of Makeshrt for field study.

- Chapter 8, Had been allocated to view the real- life examples of some agents of illegal immigration:

This chapter included the presentation of models and realistic than some of the agents of illegal immigration from the geographical scope of the villages: Kafr Algernal, Aghour Minor, sindbis, personnel administrator for central tukh qanater, and explore the view of some interested members of the interllectuals from diferent segments of Egyptian society and on the phenomenon of illegal immigration legitimacy through the use of Alacetkab method on a sample of twentieth personnel, the researher concluded in its approach to the study's findings, and conclusions, and forward- looking vision, to try to reduce the phenomenon of illegal immigration Bill in Egypt after 25 jun 2011.