

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This work was suggested and supervised by Prof. Dr. Fawzi I. Amer (Department of Zoology, Faculty of Science, Ain Shams University) and Dr. Montaz H. Ismail (Department of Zoology, Faculty of Science, Zagazig University).

I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my deep gratitude and indebtedness to these gentlemen for the great help, continuous encouragement given during the course of the work. I wish also to express my sincere thanks to them for critical reading of the manuscript and offering valuable comments and suggestions.

I would like to thank Prof. Dr. Nabil El-Naggar, Dean of Faculty of Science, Benha University, for his kindness and for the facilities he offered me during the course of the work.

Finally, I wish to express my cordial thanks to my parents for their patience and encouragement during the period of the whole work.
