

CONTENT

|                                                |    |
|------------------------------------------------|----|
| Introduction                            | 1  |
| Anatomy of the Spinal Cord              | 2  |
| Introduction                                   | 2  |
| Bony Anatomy                                   | 3  |
| Intervertebral disc                            | 4  |
| Ligaments                                      | 5  |
| Nerve supply of the vertebral joints           | 6  |
| Spinal meninges                                | 9  |
| Columns of the Cord                            | 11 |
| Blood Supply                                   | 11 |
| Pathophysiology of spinal cord injury   | 13 |
| Acute spinal cord injury                | 17 |
| Introduction                                   | 17 |
| Incidence                                      | 17 |
| Etiology                                       | 18 |
| Mechanism and classification of ASC            | 20 |
| Radiological Assessment                        | 22 |
| Systemic effect and complication of ASC | 24 |
| 1. Cardiovascular System                       | 24 |
| 2. Respiratory System                          | 28 |
| 3. Gastrointestinal System                     | 28 |
| 4. Genitourinary System                        | 29 |
| 5. Temperature Regulation                      | 29 |

|                                                                 |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 6. Neurological System                                          | 29 |
| 7. Dermatological                                               | 30 |
| Classification of spinal cord lesions                    | 31 |
| Anesthetic considerations for acute spinal cord injury          | 34 |
| (I) Emergency management                                        | 34 |
| (II) Critical care management                                   | 39 |
| (III) Anesthetic Emergence and Postoperative Management         | 51 |
| Resuscitation of the Spinal Cord                         | 52 |
| Chronic spinal cord injury and its anesthetic management | 57 |
| Introduction                                                    | 57 |
| Etiology                                                        | 57 |
| Degenerative diseases of the Vertebral column                   | 58 |
| Tumors of the vertebral column                                  | 60 |
| Spinal Deformity                                                | 63 |
| Pathophysiology of changes in patients with chronic SCI  | 65 |
| (1) cardiovascular                                              | 65 |
| (2) Respiratory changes                                         | 76 |
| (3) Muscle                                                      | 78 |
| (4) Bone                                                        | 79 |
| (5) Temperature                                                 | 80 |
| (6) Skin                                                        | 80 |
| (7) Blood                                                       | 81 |
| (8) Genito-urinary                                              | 81 |
| (9) Gastrointestina                                             | 82 |
| (10) chronic pain                                               | 83 |

|                                                   |     |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Pre-Anesthetic Management                  | 83  |
| Pre-operative Evaluation and Preparation          | 83  |
| A. Pre-operative assessment                       | 83  |
| B. Laboratory Investigations                      | 85  |
| C. Pulmonary Function Tests                       | 85  |
| D. Blood gases measurements                       | 86  |
| Premedication                              | 86  |
| Anesthesia for chronic spinal cord lesions | 88  |
| The anesthetic technique in chronic SCI patients: | 90  |
| (I) Standby, local anesthesia and sedation        | 90  |
| (II) Regional anesthesia                          | 91  |
| (III) General anesthesia                          | 93  |
| a- Intravenous Anesthetic Induction Agents        | 96  |
| b- Muscle Relaxants                               | 98  |
| c- Intubation                                     | 99  |
| d- Position of The Patient                        | 99  |
| Maintenance of Anesthesia                  | 106 |
| 1 st In case of Elective Surgery       | 106 |
| 2 nd In Case of Trauma and Shock       | 109 |
| Monitoring during spine surgery            | 112 |
| Intra-Operative Complications              | 114 |
| References                                 | 117 |
| Arabic summary                             |     |