

Abstract

Name: Amr El-Daba Ibrahim Mohamed

Title of Thesis: "The Impact of Global Crises on Egyptian Economy and Methods of Confrontation"

- The study aims to know the effect of the global financial crisis on the Egyptian economy and try to reach the perfect way to alleviate such crises.
- Based on this study examined theoretically explain in first chapter the concepts of financial globalization and financial liberalization also the study included the causes of financial crises and their types, in addition to second chapter present the position of intellectual trends of different economic role of the state in economic activity. The third chapter addressed the a comparative financial crises, including the crisis of Southeast Asia 1997. This study has been selected South Korea as one of the countries which affected by the crisis and recovered quickly. The fourth chapter examined the global financial crisis in U.S.A (crisis mortgages U.S.) 2008, this chapter present glance about global economy in general and American economy particularly. In addition this chapter present the impact of global financial crisis 2008 on the Egyptian economy and how it was the face of the crisis, while addressing some of the chronic structural imbalances experienced by the Egyptian economy. The study found that the Egyptian economy yield economy suffers from serious structural imbalances are still those imbalances stand in the way of achieving a comprehensive developmental leap as well as influenced by extreme external shocks and crises of the sources of growth dependence on external resources.