
The reasons of the low standard of students at the secondary stage in the use of english and suggestions for its imorovment

Mahmmed Mahmoud Mahmed Khedr

Astudy may be conducted to investigate how far the team - teaching can compensate the lack of efficiency of teachers of english. another study may try to design amodel course for the secondary stage whose content deals with subjects of every-day-life experiences that meet the students interests to investigate how far such acourse can raise the standard of students in the use of english.athird study may deal with the relationship between the language oral examinations and the standard of students concerning the oral skills of the language ; listening ; speaking and reading.